Address: 26 Northport Avenue, Belfast, Waldo County, Maine.

Present Owner: DeWitt Brewster, Belfast, Maine

Statement of This house was built in 1832 by Charles Treadwell.
Significance: The first floor was used as a shop, and the second for a dwelling. It was moved in 1930 from its original site at Miller and High Streets by its present owner, DeWitt Brewster, and the lower floor demolished.

1. Architectural character: This is a one-story, brick building, gable roof with two pairs of brick chimneys. Two exterior doorways have round fanlights. The interior trim is of interest.
2. Reference: Present owner, DeWitt Brewster.
